Dr. John Curtis Snow obituary - 1942

Dr. John Curtis Snow, 59, prominent physician, and active for many years in the civic life of the community, died at his home here at 3:40 a.m. Monday following a long illness. Dr. Snow had been in ill health for some time, and had been ill much of the time during the last year. His death was directly attributed to a heart ailment which was aggravated by a gall bladder condition which had necessitated two operations. He entered an Evansville hospital on July 27, and at times following the operations and treatment he showed some improvement, but never regained full strength. He also was weakened by a post-operative attack of pneumonia. He returned to his home on Sept. 9, and his condition had been grave since that time.

Dr. Snow was born on Jan. 3, 1883 in Crittenden county near Shady Grove, the son of Samuel A. and Rosabel Williams Snow. He was married on July 27, 1903 to Miss Bertha Wallace, who survives. In 1906 he entered medical school in Louisville and graduated in 1909. Following eleven months' practice in Bordley, he went to Henshaw and practiced his profession there until he volunteered for service in the Army during World War I. He was commissioned a first lieutenant in the Medical Corps, and was stationed at Camp Greenleaf, Chicamauga Park, Ga.

Following his discharge he located in Providence, where for several years he was in partnership with his father-in-law, the late Dr. J.B. Wallace, later opening his own office. Through the years he enjoyed a large practice. Dr. Snow professed faith in Christ when a young man, and joined the Baptist church. During his residence in Henshaw he served as a deacon. From 1927 until 1929 Dr. Snow was a member of the Providence board of education. He had for many years acted as physician for the athletic teams of the high school, and was a familiar figure at games. In 1929 Dr. Snow was elected to the office of Mayor of Providence, and was re-elected four years later, serving in that capacity for eight years.

In all his affairs, his private life, his professional life, Dr. Snow was honest, kind, cheerful, and always interested in others. The high esteem in which he was held was attested by the constant stream of callers who brought gifts and words of encouragement to him during his long suffering. The city school system was dismissed Tuesday afternoon in his honor, and business houses were closed during funeral services.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Bertha Wallace Snow; a daughter, Mrs. Forrest D. Williams; a grandson, John Snow Martin; a brother, W.B. Snow; and three sisters, Mrs. G.W. Lofton, Mrs. C.E. Barnhill, all of Providence, and Mrs. F.P. Northern, Providence route 1. A daughter, Katherine, died in infancy.

Funeral services were conducted at the home at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon, with the Rev. W.T. Winstead in charge, assisted by the Rev. W.M. Frisby of Henderson.

Active pallbearers were Legionnaires, A.L. Donan, J.B. Foxwell, H.L. Fraser, T.C. Thomson, Ross
