Notes for Thomas Kerr Givens:

General Notes:

The death of Mr. Thomas K. GIVENS last Tuesday morning, while not unexpected, was yet a great shock to his family and numerous relatives and friends. In fact, the whole town of Providence and vicinity seemed affected.

He has lived so long at, and been so intimately connected with, that town and its interests, his taking away will cause a void hard to be filled.

In the winter of 1811-12, Thomas GIVENS, the grandfather of Thomas K. GIVENS moved to Hopkins county from Augusta county, Va. James K. GIVENS, father of T.K. GIVENS, was at that time a youth of 16, having been born in 1796. Thos K. GIVENS, the subject of this article was born in Hopkins county, on the 24th of January, 1819. He was the oldest of a large family of brothers and sisters, all of whom he survived except his brother, Judge M.C. GIVENS, of Henderson.

Mr. T.K. GIVENS was born within two miles of the present town of Providence, and has never lived over two miles from the place of his birth. He has been a member of the Providence Baptist church for over sixty-one years. He has been a member of the Providence Lodge of Masons for fifty-two years, and has lived with his now widow over fifty-one years; and has been a constant subscriber to the Western Recorder for forty-six years. He was a man of great firmness of purpose, and unquestionable integrity.

While always a farmer, he has for the past thirty years been largely engaged in the tobacco business, and merchandise business, under the firm name of T.K. GIVENS & Son. He succeeded in accumulating what is regarded in this section as an ample fortune, being reputed the wealthiest citizen of Webster county.

On Wednesday, he was laid to his last resting place by the order of Masons, amidst a large concourse of people who had assembled to pay him their last tribute of respect. (Source: Madisonville Hustler, Fri., Dec. 10, 1897)

Notes for John Christian "Christropher" Givens:

General Notes:

JOHN C. GIVENS was born in Hopkins County, Ky., June 17, 1828, and is the fourth of ten children born to James K. and Elizabeth (Christian) Givens, the former a native of Virginia, the latter of Kentucky, of Irish and English descent respectively. James E Givens, when about eighteen years old, in 1813, came with his parents to Hopkins County, Ky., where his father, Thomas Givens, bought military lands and improved a farm. James K. bought wild land near the old homestead, where he improved the farm upon which he resided until his death, in 1855. For the last twenty years of his life he was almost entirely helpless, being affected all that time by rheumatism. He and his wife were from early life members of the Baptist Church. John C. in 1850 went to California, by the overland route, and was successfully engaged in mining and teaming there for nearly three years. He then returned to Kentucky and bought a farm near Nebo, Hopkins County, where he has since been engaged in farming. He was married November 24, 1854, to Miss Artemisia Barnhill, a native of Bertie County, N. C. Seven children have blessed their union, four of whom - two sons and two daughters - are living. From: Kentucky, A History of the State. Perrin, Battle & Kniffin. 2nd ed., 1885, Webster Co

SHELBY HICKS was born in Henderson County, Ky., January 15, 1854, a son of James J. and Ann (Peed) Hicks, natives of North Carolina, and of English descent. James J. Hicks was married in his native State, where he was engaged in farming for many years. In 1845 he removed with his wife and family to Henderson County, Ky., where some few years later he bought a farm, which was afterward cut off into Webster County, upon which he remained until 1874, when he sold out and bought a farm near Providence, where he still resides. Our subject received an excellent education at Lincoln University, in Illinois, and was employed during the summer season on his father's farm until he was sixteen years old, after which he taught and attended school until he was twenty-two years old. He then engaged as a salesman in a drug store at Providence, Ky., for one year, after which he engaged in the drug business on his own account at Cynthiana, Posey Co., Ind. for two years. For the past four or five years he has been engaged with Prof. W.S. Coleman at Providence Male and Female Academy. The buildings, which are large and commodious, are situated on the top of a hill near the town, and are furnished with all modern appliances, and an excellent library. Prof. Hicks was married, December 26, 1883, to Miss Sallie C. Givens, daughter of T.K. Givens. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks are members of the United Baptist Church. He is a member of the Masonic fraternity, and is now, and has been for several years, secretary of his lodge. He is a Democrat.
